

Figure 1

The following table shows the results of the survey of the use of the word "God" in the Bible. The table is divided into two main sections: "Old Testament" and "New Testament". The "Old Testament" section is further divided into "Pentateuch" and "Psalms". The "New Testament" section is further divided into "Gospels" and "Epistles". The table shows the number of times the word "God" is used in each section, and the total number of times it is used in the Bible.
